Leslie R. Stellman Represents School Board Before Maryland's Highest Court

Hodes, Pessin & Katz, P.A. member, Leslie R. Stellman, argued a constitutional case on behalf of one of Maryland's twenty-four county school boards before the Maryland Court of Appeals. The Court's decision may result in the school systems' right to absolute constitutional immunity from liability on certain federal claims.

A renowned education lawyer, Mr. Stellman is the author of three widely used textbooks on education law, as well as a professor at the Johns Hopkins University Graduate School of Education and the University of Baltimore School of Law. Mr. Stellman represents many of Maryland's public school systems as well as the United States Naval Academy and the University of Maryland System. Mr. Stellman also represents many private employers in the areas of labor relations, employment discrimination, and wrongful discharge.
